RE: Marques Ogden

To whom it may concern:

Over the past several months I have had the pleasure of getting to know and work with Marques Ogden. During the time that we have spent together the key characteristics that have become apparent are compassion, humility, and sincerity.

I first met Marques in the summer of 2015 while he was attending an entrepreneurial course at Babson College. Marques was very in tune to the message that business owners must conduct due diligence before entering into business partnerships and he was vocal with his peers to share his life lesson, in an open and meaningful manner.

Since that moment, Marques and our organization have developed a meaningful partnership where he able to connect with his peers so that they would have the knowledge to not make the same mistake as he once did. His ability to communicate, present and share has been the cornerstone of our success these past several months.

If you would like to discuss how Marques would contribute to the success of your organization, please do not hesitate to reach out.

Thank you,
